Background

- Established in July 1999, SLM is a Melbourne-based independent financial and strategic advisory firm, specialising in the provision of financial, economic, strategic and investment advice to its clients.
- SLM has provided detailed financial, economic and negotiation advice to Land Councils and Aboriginal groups evaluating exploration, development, mining and a range of infrastructure compensation proposals as well as investment opportunities around Australia.
- We also acted as a financial expert in proceedings before the Federal Court of Australia in the landmark Timber Creek case currently before the High Court, establishing a national benchmark for native title compensation.
- With a strong background in resources and infrastructure, financial, economic and valuation expertise, SLM provides a range of expert services to Aboriginal Groups. Transactions in which we have provided advice and negotiating support involve some of Australia's largest resource companies, as well as the Commonwealth, State and Territory governments. Our recent advisory engagements are detailed over the next few pages.
